

REPORT ON A HUMAN PATCH TEST

Testing of the skin irritation potency of a cosmetic product.

RAPID BRONZ

Determination of the side effects (skin erythema and edema) on skin is useful in the assessment and evaluation of the safety of the tested cosmetic product which exposure by the dermal rout is likely.

-The tested products RAPID BRONZ do not contain any substance which is forbidden by the EEC legislation as far as the use of cosmetic and personal hygiene products is concerned, the preservatives in the product formula are in the list of accepted components published by the EEC and are used in a concentration provided for by the law and moreover limits and instructions, published in the Enclosures of the 76/768 EEC regulation, are mentioned for those substances for which there is a concentration limit.

On the basis of the data obtained we asses that the product: RAPID BRONZ NON IRRITATING